

Mustapha Kaci received his BS Engg. and MS in Plastics Materials from Algerian Institute of Petroleum in Algiers and his Doctorate degree from the Ferhat Abbas University I of Setif (Algeria). Currently, he serves as a Full Professor at the Department of Process Engineering at the Abderrahmane Mira University of Bejaia in Algeria. He is also the Director of Research and holds the position of Director of the Laboratory of Advanced Polymer Materials (LMPA).

He published more than 120 international peer-reviewed publications on various aspects of polymer degradation with an h index (Scopus) > 27. His research activities include also the elaboration and characterization of biocomposites, polymer blends and recycling.